

Door locked, please ring the bell for assistance

This door has been locked temporarily to ensure the safety of the patients.

We would be grateful if you could ensure that you do not allow anyone else in or out of the main door with you for safety purposes.

If you have any questions regarding this notice, please speak to a member of the ward team.

Thank you for your assistance

